Dear Grissele,

You did another great job with our newsletter.

I enclose news release in case you need "filler" material for the next issue.

I received mailing list from you last week. We can start on an update of the Directory as soon as Hector okays it.

Sincerely,

Julio M. Fuentes, JMC

RELEASE: IMMEDIATE

LOCAL (JUDGE/LEGISLATOR/OTHER) REPRESENTS STATE AT NATIONAL JUDICIAL CONFERENCE

Reno -- Julia M. Fuentes of the Municipal Court (name) (court/legislature/other) in Newark represented the state of New Jersey at a national judicial conference dealing with the problems of crime and jail and prison crowding, March 12-15 at The National Judicial College in Reno, Nev.

"National Conference of the Judiciary: Crisis in the Streets, Jail and Prison Crowding" was funded by the National Institute of Justice (NIJ) of the U.S.
Department of Justice and co-sponsored by the NIJ; the National Conference of State
Trial Judges and National Conference of Special Court Judges of the American Bar Association Judicial Administration Division; and The National Judicial College.

One general jurisdiction judge, one special court judge and one legislator from each state plus Washington, D.C. and Puerto Rico were specially invited to develop a series of recommended practices and procedures dealing with institutional crowding, and to develop individual state plans.

(A paragraph describing the conference will be inserted here.)

(The NJC is affiliated with the ABA and located at UNR.)

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION: Judge Fuentes attended the conference with Judge John A. Morenelli of the Supreme Court and Gary Hartman,
